Intercountry Adoptee and Family Support Service

Information, counselling and support for intercountry adoptees and their families.

Do you need information, counselling and support to navigate the complexities and unique challenges that intercountry adoption may bring during a lifetime?

Who we support:

- Intercountry adoptees: children, young people and adults
- Adoptive parents of children adopted from overseas or expatriate adoptions
- Family members of intercountry adoptees
- Anyone who is going through the intercountry adoption process

How we support:

- Individual and family counselling
- Case management and casework support
- Therapeutic groups
- Parenting support
- Small grants and bursaries scheme
- Referral to other support services where required
- Education and training for allied health and community workers

This is a confidential and free service available Australia-wide. Counselling and support are delivered face to face or via telehealth.
